

First Aid & CPR Training

Benefits to the employer

- Prepares personnel for emergencies in the workplace
- Provides temporary aid until the paramedics arrive
- Reduces the severity of injuries if treated immediately
- May save lives in the event of a multiple-injuries accident
- Fulfills a critical requirement of the company's disaster plan
- Provides fully stocked first aid kits to your workplace

Who needs this service

Any employer who wants employees ready for emergencies and able to assist an injured person while waiting for medical personnel.

Program features

- American Heart Association certified Training Center
- AHA , two-year certification given by certified, experienced trainers
- First Aid, CPR, AED training available as a package or separately
- Training at our training center in Grampian, Pa. or at your workplace
- American Health and Safety certification also available

Cost

Cost may be part of a monthly retainer or priced separately. Multiple class discounts apply. First Aid Kits - specific pricing based upon your industry. Large group discounts available.

