

OSHA Training & Compliance

Benefits to the employer

- Provides the highest standards of workplace safety practices to your employees
- Improves results should you be subject to an OSHA audit, avoiding or reducing fines and penalties
- Keeps safety in the forefront of the minds of your supervisors and employees, avoiding accidents and sending them home safely each day
- Reduces accident frequency and ultimately reducing Workers Compensation costs
- Leads to safer behaviors in all aspects of life

Who needs this service

- All employers who wish to create a safer workplace, have employees and are subject to OSHA regulations.

Program Features

- OSHA 10 or 30 hour classes for construction or general industry
- Classes may be conducted at your worksite or at the training center in Grampian, Pa.
- Online courses available on our website www.dmssafetyservices.com

Cost

- Prices vary depending on class size and location