

Respiratory Protection

Benefits to the employer

- Prevent injury to employees exposed to harmful substances
- Prevent workers compensation claims due to work-related respiratory issues
- OSHA compliant program provided, avoiding fines and penalties
- Fit-testing and respiratory training conducted at your worksite
- Air quality testing to measure levels of potentially harmful vapors, dust, etc.

Who needs this service

All workplaces where an air quality or dust issues exists

Program features

- Written OSHA compliant program provided
- Respirator eligibility medical questionnaire completed with your employees
- Fit testing and training conducted on your premises

Cost

Monthly or quarterly retainer or per project basis