

SafeLandUSA

Benefits to the employer

- Provides safety training for the oil & gas industries
- Prepares any employee working on a drill site to work safely and includes drillers, welders, electricians, maintenance workers, truck drivers, and more.
- Gives a competitive edge to contractors bidding on oil and gas drilling jobs if their employees have already been trained in SafeLand USA.
- May be required by gas companies' Master Service Agreements
- PEC Premier approved course

Who needs this service

Anyone working in or in conjunction with oil and gas companies on active drill sites.

Program features

- 8-10 hour, one time safety training course give by accredited instructors
- Identification verification required and a written test must be passed
- Classes conducted at our training center in Grampian, Pa or your worksite
- Classes conducted at the worksite require minimum attendees of 10. Mileage and related travel expenses will be charged.

Cost

$150 per person. Maximum class size is 25. Discounts available for large classes from the same company.

This program offered in collaboration with Penn State DuBois Continuing Education.