

Vibration & Seismic Monitoring

Benefits to your company

- Assuring that your blasting or pile driving is within required limits
- Compliance with OSHA, DEP or other regulatory agencies
- Avoiding fines and penalties
- Can include property surveys, both pre and post blast for construction or mining

Who needs this service

Companies who conduct blasting, pile driving and related operations, such as in the mining and construction industries.

Program features

- Certified personnel
- State of the art seismograph equipment
- Comprehensive property surveys delivered to company, property owner and governing agency in hard copy or electronically

Cost

Per project or under a monthly retainer